

Reproduction education motivation for teaching and occupation perspective

BATUMI GROUP

Zhana Chitanava
Darejan Rusia
Ketevan Adamia

Lesson process

(Questionnaire, applications, discussion, make a video, make a photo)

Mini lecture

(Introduction of embryogenesis stages, observation, descriptions, view the sex cells (gametes) under microscopy)

Visit of the in vitro fertilization clinic

(Observation at oocyte donation, spermatozoa selection and frozen methods)

Interview with patients

Who desire artificial insemination or in vitro fertilization

Visit at the ultrasound examination clinic

(Observation of different embryogenesis stages)

Laboratory diagnostics

Embryology

Genetic counseling

Bioethics commissions

Medical genetics

Motivation for teaching

Occupation perspective

Reproduction system

Collegial cooperation

Reproductive health and modern approaches

Collegial cooperation

Reproductive education and ethical problems

The role of the government in family planning

In vitro fertilization methods

Pupils raised their level of reproductive education
They can transfer of knowledge
Realized employment prospects
Increased motivation and civic consciousness

Teachers improve the teaching practice and modify learning curriculum to see schools needs from the side of practical activities maximum readiness for teaching reproduction topics

